Lone-Worker Protection

As more and more employers review their Health & Safety procedures following the introduction of Corporate Manslaughter legislation, the need for an effective lone-working support facility has increased.

Through our 24 hour control centre we are able to offer a service to our customers whereby lone-working staff can be monitored via a series of welfare check calls that identify their location and wellbeing.

The service can be applied to site based staff or those working alone at various locations for example care-workers and IT staff. The service is simple to set-up and a cost effective means of protecting both staff and company reputation. Depending on the conditions this can either be a permanent service or set-up to suit particular ad-hoc requirements. Our Patrol and Response teams are in place to offer support to those lone-workers who fail to communicate with our control centre and we are unable to locate.
