

Security Officer of the Month September 2011

David Neil has been awarded Security Officer of the Month Award for September 2011.

David Joined Risk Management Security Services on the very first day of a new contract at the Bletchley Campus at Milton Keynes College in September 2010. From his very first day on site David received compliments from students and staff for his positive attitude and professionalism.

David has consistently performed his duty to a very high standard for the past year and continues to be a vital member of the Bletchley Campus team and has gained the respect of students and staff alike.

David was nominated for his award by Milton Keynes College Facilities Manager Garry Sutton and Facilities Coordinator Estelle Jackson who were both present at the award ceremony.

